The Hornsby Art Society is a non profit, volunteer-run community organisation that actively encourages and promotes the development, appreciation and recognition of the visual arts in the Hornsby area.

In existence since 1963, the Society relocated in 2011 to Wallarobba, Hornsby Shire Council's Arts and Cultural Centre where we continue to showcase the talents of our fine artists, sculptors, ceramicists and glass artists.

HAS offers a continuous program of demonstrations, workshops, artist talks & studio visits aimed at inspiring & connecting local artists. We are proud to have enabled many artists & craftspeople in the Hornsby Shire to host their own 'affordable' exhibitions – either solo, or as a collective with other artists.
